Advent Adventures

Brownie Challenges:

1. It is the first day of Advent, you may usually have a chocolate advent calendar, why not make your own
2. Make a Christmas brooch/badge. It can be anything you like, felt snowman, pipe cleaner wreath
3. Paint a Christmas stone – you could leave it somewhere in park or public area so someone else can find it and enjoy it too
4. Rudolph reindeer lollypop, you could make these for your friends
5. Make your own Santa Sleepover Grotto over the weekend of 4 to 6 December – sleep either in own bed or a made up one
6. Sinterklaas tradition – find out about this tradition and what they do with sweet treats

9. Dress up and play party games with your family or with your Brownie friends on Zoom (is it easier or harder on Zoom?)
10. Make a candy cane out of things you find around your house
11. Have a sort out of your toys and donate those that you do not use anymore to charity – check with your parents first
12. Make a Christmas pudding, this could be edible, use Maltesers, rice recipe or crafty using pompoms, felt
13. Dress up as an elf or a festive fairy
14. Design Father Christmas some new socks
15. Start a 'You've Been Socked'

16. Have a festive treat like a mince pie and chat with a grandparent or auntie
17. Make a snowman or other festive friend using a battery tealight
18. Make a Yule Log, this could be edible using chocolate mini rolls, or finding a log and making it festive
19. Find out about penguins, do you think you could walk like a penguin with an egg on your feet?
20. Create a gingerbread house using either from cardboard or gingerbread and decorate it. Aldi sometimes have cheap kits to buy
21. Watch a Christmas film, you could write a review and tell other Brownies which is your favourite Christmas film
22. Donate an item of food to a food bank to help others
23. Using spare wrapping paper, make up a game to play with your family
24. Visit a garden centre with a Christmas display, take a photo of you next to your favourite Christmas tree or display
